THE COMPANYInvestment objective and policy

To seek capital appreciation through investment in the worldwide biotechnology industry. In order to achieve its investment objective, the Company invests in a diversified portfolio of shares and related securities in biotechnology companies on a worldwide basis.

In connection with the investment policy, the following guidelines apply:

- The Company will not invest more than 10%, in aggregate, of the value of its gross assets in other closed ended investment companies (including investment trusts) listed on the Official List of the FCA, except where the investment companies themselves have stated investment policies to invest no more than 15% of their gross assets in other closed ended investment companies (including investment trusts) listed on the Official List of the FCA.

- The Company will not invest more than 15%, in aggregate, of the value of its gross assets in other closed ended investment companies (including investment trusts) listed on the Official List of the FCA.
- The Company will not invest more than 15% of the value of its gross assets in any one individual stock at the time of acquisition.
- The Company will not invest more than 10% of the value of its gross assets in unquoted investments at the time of acquisition. This limit includes any investment in private equity funds managed by the Portfolio Manager, or any affiliates of such entity.
- The Company may invest or commit for investment a maximum of US$15 million, after the deduction of proceeds of disposal and other returns of capital, in private equity funds managed by the Portfolio Manager, or any affiliates thereof.
- The Company's borrowing policy is that borrowings will not exceed 20% of the value of the Company's net assets. Any loan facility in place from time to time may be drawn by the Portfolio Manager overseen by Frostrow (as AIFM).
- The Company may be unable either to invest directly or indirectly in certain countries or share classes. In these circumstances, the Company may gain exposure by investing indirectly through swaps or other derivative instruments where it is more efficient to do so. Exposure to underlying investments thus obtained will count towards and be subject to the investment limits set out above. Further, where the Company invests via swaps or derivatives for such a purpose, exposure to these financial instruments will count towards and be subject to the limits on the use of derivative and equity swaps set out below.
- In line with the investment Objective, derivatives are employed, when appropriate, in an effort to enhance returns and to improve the risk-return profile of the Company's portfolio. The Board has set the following limits within which derivative exposures are managed:
 - Derivative transactions (excluding equity swaps) can be used to mitigate risk and/or enhance returns and will be restricted to an aggregate net exposure of 5% of the value of the gross assets measured at the time of the relevant transaction;
 - Equity swaps may be used for efficient portfolio management purposes and aggregate net counterparty exposure through a combination of derivatives (as set out in the previous bullet point) and equity swap transactions is restricted to 12% of the value of the gross assets of the Company at the time of the transaction.

Investment strategy and techniques

The implementation of the Company's Investment Objective has been delegated to OrbiMed Capital LLC, the Company's Portfolio Manager ("OrbiMed" or the "Portfolio Manager"), by Frostrow (as AIFM) under the Board's and Frostrow's supervision and guidance.

Details of OrbiMed's investment strategy and approach are set out in the Annual Report, which can be found on the Company's website: www.biotechgt.com Performance is measured against the NASDAQ Biotechnology Index (net, total return, sterling adjusted) (the "Benchmark"). While performance is measured against the Company's Benchmark, the Board encourages OrbiMed to manage the portfolio without regard to the Benchmark and its make-up.

While the Board's strategy is to allow flexibility in managing the investments, in order to manage investment risk it has imposed various investment, gearing and derivative guidelines and limits, within which Frostrow and OrbiMed are required to manage the investments, as set out below under "Investment Limitations and Guidelines".

Any material changes to the Investment Objective, Policy and Benchmark or the investment, gearing and derivative guidelines and limits require approval from shareholders.

Derivative strategy

The Company does not currently hedge against foreign currency movements to manage market price risk.

Gearing limits

The Board and Frostrow believe that shareholder returns can be enhanced through the use of borrowings at appropriate times for the purpose of investment. The Board has set a maximum gearing level, through borrowing, of 20% of the Company's net assets.

The Company's borrowing requirements are met through the utilisation of a loan facility, repayable on demand, provided by the Company's Custodian and Prime Broker, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC ("JPMS"). This facility can be drawn by the Portfolio Manager, overseen by the AIFM.

As part of the arrangements with JPMS, they may take assets as collateral up to 140% of the value of the loan drawn down. The assets taken as collateral may be used, loaned, sold, rehypothecated or transferred. The level of the Company's gearing is at the discretion of the AIFM and the Board and the loan can be repaid at any time, at which point the assets taken as collateral will be released back to the Company. Any of the Company's assets taken as collateral are not covered by JPMS.

JPMS is a registered broker-dealer and is accordingly subject to limits on rehypothecation imposed by the US Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). In the event of JPMS's insolvency, the Company may be unable to recover, in full, assets held by it as Custodian or held as collateral. This risk is managed by through the selection of a financially stable counterparty, limitations on the use of gearing and reliance on the SEC's robust regulatory regime. In addition, the Board monitors the credit rating of JPMS. JPMS is also subject to regular monitoring by J.P. Morgan (Europe) Limited, the Company's Depositary, and the Board receives regular reports from the Depositary.

Leverage limits

The AIFM Directive prescribes two methods of measuring and expressing leverage (as opposed to gearing) and requires disclosure of the maximum amount of 'leverage' the Company might be subject to. The definition of leverage is wider than that of gearing and includes exposures that are not considered to contribute to gearing, such as the borrowing of cash and the use of derivatives.

The Company has two current sources of leverage: the loan facility, which is subject to the gearing limit; and derivatives, which are subject to the separate derivative limits. In accordance with the AIFM Directive, the Board and AIFM have set a maximum leverage limit of 130% under both the gross and commitment basis.

Further details on the gearing and leverage calculations and how total exposure through derivatives is calculated, are set out in the Company's Annual Report which is published on the Company's website: www.biotechgt.com.

The Company will ensure that any change to the maximum level of leverage which the AIFM and Portfolio Manager may employ on behalf of the Company, as well as any right of the re-use of collateral or any guarantee granted under the leveraging arrangement and the total amount of leveraged employed by the Company, is published in the Annual Report, which can be found on the Company's website: www.biotechgt.com. In addition, the Company will notify shareholders of any such changes, rights or guarantees without undue delay by issuing an announcement via a Regulatory Information Service ("RIS").

Changes to the investment policy

In accordance with the UKLR, the Company can only make a material change to its published investment policy with the approval of its shareholders.

Any change in investment strategy or investment policy which does not amount to a material change to the Company's published investment policy may be made by the Company without shareholder approval.

Frostrow may amend the information set out in this document from time to time.

The manner in which sustainability risks are integrated into the investment decisions of the AIFM

The AIFM has delegated its portfolio management function to OrbiMed and therefore does not take any investment decisions on behalf of the Company. The Board believes that consideration of Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) factors is important and has the potential to protect and enhance investment returns. The Board has delegated authority to OrbiMed to evaluate investee companies’ performance and engage with their management teams on material ESG issues. The Portfolio Manager’s investment criteria ensure that ESG factors are integrated into their investment process and best practice in this area is encouraged by the Board. The Board receives reports from OrbiMed on their approach to handling ESG-related issues at portfolio companies.

OrbiMed, is guided by its Responsible Investing Policy in its approach to integrating ESG issues into its investment decision-making. The Portfolio Manager seeks to invest in innovative biotech and life sciences companies that are working towards addressing significant unmet medical needs globally.

OrbiMed believes that there is a high congruence between companies that seek to act responsibly and those that succeed in building long-term shareholder value. OrbiMed seeks to integrate ESG factors into its overall investment process with the objective of maximising investment returns. Investment decisions are based on a variety of financial and non-financial factors, including ESG information.

As a responsible investor, OrbiMed negatively screens potential investments and business sectors that may lead to negative impacts on public health or well-being. The importance of robust governance and social safeguards in biotech has grown significantly; regulators and investors are increasingly scrutinising financially material ESG issues such as clinical trial transparency, equitable access to therapies, and pricing practices. Governance issues, including board structure and executive pay, are also financially relevant. For companies which do not have manufacturing and are focused on drug discovery and development, environmental factors such as greenhouse gas (“GHG”) emissions are not generally regarded as financially material. The Portfolio Manager generally utilises healthcare sector-specific guidance from the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (“SASB”)¹ and in-house analyses from investment analysts to guide its selection of material ESG factors as part of its investment research. Healthcare and life sciences sectors are highly regulated, globally. Regulation is well-established across developed markets and emerging markets for the sector. To that end, OrbiMed considers compliance with local laws and regulations as one of the factors in its investment evaluation. Depending on the investment, all or a subset of the ESG factors that are financially material and relevant are considered in OrbiMed’s research.

OrbiMed utilises ESG scores for public equity holdings from third-party service providers. To supplement the information from the third-party service providers, OrbiMed also conducts proprietary analysis on ESG performance.

OrbiMed also engages on a regular basis with its portfolio companies through meetings with management, proxy voting, and in some cases, through board representation.

OrbiMed’s analysts track financially material ESG information such as safety of clinical trials, drug safety, ethical marketing, call-backs and other materially relevant factors. As part of these efforts, OrbiMed engages with companies directly or through brokers, and facilitates dialogues and an exchange of leading practices among investors, companies and other relevant experts on ESG in the healthcare sector

OrbiMed’s full Responsible Investing Policy is available on the Company’s website: www.biotechgt.com.
